Children’s Long-Term Support Program (CLTS)
Children’s Community Options Program (CCOP)

What are the Children’s Long-Term Support Program (CLTS) and Children’s Community Options Program (CCOP)?

- Funding for services that aren’t covered by health insurance
- Your county’s waiver agency runs the program
- Support and service coordinator can help find resources

Why is it helpful?

- Create goals and personalize your child’s services
- Possible benefits include respite care, sensory items, recreational activities, and more

What else is important to know?

- To be eligible, your child must have a diagnosed disability and meet criteria on a functional screen
- Staff need to know about the extra help your child needs
- Your child must be eligible for a Wisconsin Medicaid program to apply for CLTS
- If not eligible for a Wisconsin Medicaid program, still able to apply for CCOP

How do you apply?

- Contact your county’s waiver agency
  https://www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/clts/contact.htm
- If your child is found eligible, some counties have a wait list
